Your Duty to Report

Everyone is required to report to the Company in writing any suspected violation of any law that applies to the Company and any suspected violation of the Company's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct. It is important that you report all suspected violations. This includes possible accounting or financial reporting violations, insider trading, bribery, or violations of the anti-retaliation aspects of this Policy. Retaliation includes adverse actions, harassment, or discrimination in your employment relating to your reporting of a suspected violation.

It is the policy of the Company that you must, when you reasonably suspect that a violation of an applicable law or the Company's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct has occurred or is occurring, report that potential violation. Reporting is crucial for early detection, proper investigation and remediation, and deterrence of violations of Company policies or applicable laws. You should not fear any negative consequences for reporting reasonably suspected violations because retaliation for reporting suspected violations is strictly prohibited by Company policy. Failure to report any reasonable belief that a violation has occurred or is occurring is itself a violation of this Policy and such failure will be addressed with appropriate disciplinary action, including possible termination of employment.

How to Report

You must report all suspected violations in writing to your immediate supervisor;

If you have reason to believe that your immediate supervisor is involved in the suspected violation, your report may be made to the Audit Committee of CCL' Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") at:

Chairperson, Audit Committee;
Coastal Corporation Limited
Door No. 15-1-37/3, Jayaprada Apts,
Nowroji Road, Maharanipeta,
Visakhapatnam – 530002.

Because you have several means of reporting, you never need to report to someone you believe may be involved in the suspected violation or from whom you would fear retaliation.

Your report should include as much information about the suspected violation as you can provide. Where possible, it should describe the nature of the suspected violation; the identities of persons involved in the suspected violation; a description of documents that relate to the suspected violation; and the time frame during which the suspected violation occurred. Where you have not reported anonymously, you may be contacted for further information.

Investigations after You Report

All reports under this Policy will be promptly and appropriately investigated, and all information disclosed during the course of the investigation will remain confidential, except as necessary to conduct the investigation and take any remedial action, in accordance with applicable law. Everyone working for or with the Company has a duty to cooperate in the investigation of reports of violations. Failure to cooperate in an investigation, or deliberately providing false information during an investigation, can be the basis for disciplinary action, including termination of employment. If, at the conclusion of its investigation, the Company determines that a violation has occurred, the Company will take effective remedial action commensurate with the nature of the offense. This action may include disciplinary action against the accused party, up to and including termination. Reasonable and necessary steps will also be taken to prevent any further violations of Company policy.

Retaliation is not tolerated

No one may take any adverse action against any employee for complaining about, reporting, or participating or assisting in the investigation of, a reasonably suspected violation of any law, this Policy, or the Company's Code of Conduct and Ethics. The Company takes reports of such retaliation seriously. Incidents of retaliation against any employee reporting a violation or participating in the investigation of a reasonably suspected violation will result in appropriate disciplinary action against anyone responsible, including possible termination of employment. Those working for or with the Company who engage in retaliation against reporting employees may also be subject to civil, criminal and administrative penalties.

An employee/Whistle Blower may report any violation of the above clause to the Chairman of the Audit committee, who shall investigate into the same and recommend suitable action to the management.

Disqualifications

- a. While it will be ensured that genuine Whistle blowers are accorded complete protection from any kind of unfair treatment or retaliation as specified above, any abuse of this protection will warrant disciplinary action.
- b. Protection under this policy would not mean protection from disciplinary action arising out of false or bogus allegations made by a employee/Whistle Blower knowing it to be false or bogus or with a mala fide intention.
- c. Whistle Blowers, who make any Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be mala fide or malicious or Whistle Blowers who make 3 or more Protected Disclosures, which have been subsequently found to be frivolous, baseless or reported otherwise than in good faith, will be disqualified from reporting further Protected Disclosures under this policy.

All documents related to reporting, investigation and enforcement pursuant to this Policy shall be retained by the company for minimum period of seven years.
